“ I've known Willie (June Bug his Mom would call him sometimes) since Elementary School. We played Cowboys and Indians, Hide-and-Seek, Tag and a host of other childhood games together. Later, we attended the same Junior High, High School and University. He was my best man at my wedding. Although we lost touch when I moved overseas in the early 80's, I would always think of him as my lifetime best friend. He was kind, considerate, down to earth, and a wickedly smart engineer. It was a blessing to have known him. To his family: You have my prayers and deepest sympathy. To Willie: Rest now buddy and I'll see you again on the other side.
