“ You were my rock when I lived in Detroit. You and Bill took my little family in and showed us so much love. Of course, I remember our shopping trips to the resale stores and your homemade delicious cakes. I just want all to know how wonderful you were and that your life brought tremendous comfort and joy to my family. To Net, Ronnie and Trina: You are close to my heart and in my prayers.

*Love Always,
Brenda*

Mama Brager is what your family and Friends called you. Thank you for allowing me the same honor when we first met ten years ago. It was at a family get together at Trina home. You gave me the biggest smile and hug when I was introduced to you. We sat together and talked for a while. I will never forget. When you were ready to go home. You said your goodbyes to everyone including me and started to walk down the street. I thought you were going to your car. But you said no that you had walked over to Trina's. And you were going to walk home to get your exercise in. Since Trina or I couldn't persuade you to let us drive you home. We (Trina, Shannon who was heavy with child and I). We decided that we would walk with you. I Thought to myself how far could it be. Probably just a block or two. Boy was I wrong! it was up 4 or 5 blocks and down a block or two before we reached your front door. But you stroll down the street effortlessly. Holding a conversation with me and imparting your wisdom. From that day forward I always looked for you anytime I came to a family function. You will be Greatly missed by your family and me. Rest in Peace

“ Words cannot express the many moments we shared as sisters.

The Broken Chain

We Little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day GOD called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you, you are ALWAYS at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same; but as God calls us one by one, THE....CHAIN... WILL... LINK ... US....AGAIN!!

*Love,
Truman and Brunette Burris*

“ To Inetta Mims and family, Your Beautiful mother will truly be missed for so many wonderful memories. I am grateful I had an opportunity to experience her love , kindness and delicious pound cakes. I guess I have to trust that you Inetta can somehow do her recipe some justice. Lol. I'm so glad Wonzie had a tender heart for me, I just adored her. My prayer is that the Father's Love and comfort will surround you in this time of Great Celebration! Love you my Sister

“ Mr and Mrs B (as we affectionately called them) welcomed us into our neighborhood as soon as we moved in and quickly became surrogate grandparents to our then, young sons. They looked out for us and Mrs. B often had baked goods ready for us "just because". We so very much love and appreciate the heartwarming memories that our family will always have and we thank the family for sharing their lovely parents with us.

*Much love and many blessings,
